BOLD ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY

Little Rock, Ark., May 20.—A most dastardly attempt at robbery and possibly at murder was made upon Fritz Bobeng, a grocer who conducts a store at Twenty-fifth and Arch streets, yesterday afternoon. At noon a negro hung about the store and finally went in while no one was present but Arthur Bobeng, son of the proprietor. The negro finally went into the store and purchased a five cent lunch. He stood about the store until he had eaten the lunch and went away. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon he went back and found the proprietor on duty. He asked to be shown some article which was on the floor behind the counter. Bobeng stooped to pick it up and as he did so the negro picked up a hatchet from a table and struck at Bobeng's head, leaning over the counter to do so. The negro brought the hatchet down with great force, and to this fact is due the life of Bobeng, as the hatchet flew off the handle, embedding itself in the wall. Bobeng was struck heavily on the head with the handle and fell to the floor. The negro saw, however he had not rendered Bobeng unconscious and could not loot the store at will, so beat a hasty retreat. A physician had to be called in to dress the wounds of Bobeng. The police are now looking for the negro, who mysteriously disappeared after the attempt at robbery was made.

FINED FOR SUNDAY WORK

J. Kulesair Pleads Guilty to Sabbath-Breaking in J. P. Court.

Because he labored on his farm on last Sunday, J. Kulesair, a Hungarian living five miles east of Conway, was fined $1 and costs, amounting to $17.35, in Justice of the Peace, W. B. Wilson's court this morning. Kulesair, who cannot speak English, is said to have been frequently guilty of the same offense and has been repeatedly warned by his neighbors. Last Sunday afternoon Constable O. L. Honea was driving past his place and saw the Hungarian hard at work in his field. When he was arrested, Kulesair claimed that he understood those who had warned him not to work on Sunday were trying to force him to attend church.

Under the law, a man may keep another day than Sunday as a day of rest and be permitted to labor on Sunday. Judge Wilson asked Kulesair this morning if he observed any other day as a sabbath. "No, no; work-a-all-a-de-days," was the defendant's reply.

"Write Your Own Money"

A checking account, enabling you to "write your own money," gives you almost as complete and ready control of your funds as though they were carried in your pocket—and, for business purposes, better control; for, it is universally conceded "a check is the best receipt."

This besides having their money in a safe place is one of the many reasons so many do their banking with the

NEW EDITORS FOR FARMER

Another change will take place in the management of the Arkansas Farmer of this city on June 1, when Representative R. L. Brawner of Logan county, formerly of this county, and Paul D. Cooper, a young attorney who recently moved to Conway from Indiana, will take charge of the paper. They will succeed Secretary M. F. Dickinson, E. A. Corley and J. A. Boone, who have been conducting the business for the past six months. The latter have just disposed of the Union Tribune, which has been published at the same office, to the National Co-Operator of Fort Worth, Texas, and will now retire altogether from the newspaper business. The Farmer plant is owned by L. S. Dunaway.

The Log Cabin Democrat extends best wishes to the new management and wishes for them a prosperous business.

Arkansas Senators at Home.

Little Rock, May 20.—Little representation has Arkansas at Washington at the present time. The two senators are now in Little Rock, though it was not generally known until yesterday afternoon that Senator Clark was this side of Washington. He has been here a week and declines to state when he is going back to be on guard. Senator Davis has not returned to Washington since the death of Mrs. Davis, but will go when wanted to vote on the tariff question.

BIG CROWD IS AT GAME

With fine weather, the largest crowd of the season is present this afternoon at the double-header at Hendrix park. The game between Ouachita and Hendrix, which was postponed from yesterday on account of rain, was called promptly at 2 o'clock, and the Normal-Ouachita game starts at 4 o'clock.

Today's game ends the schedule so far as visiting teams is concerned and next week the series between Hendrix and the Normal will begin. There are four games to be played and two will take place Monday and Tuesday, while the other will be played Friday and Saturday. If either of the games has to be postponed, it will be played on May 31 or June 1, as the Normal closes on June 2 and no games could be had after that date. These contests will doubtless be the warmest of the season. The marked improvement in the Normal's work recently has caused their stock to take a big rise and many admirers of the team are predicting they will take three out of the four. On the other hand, Hendrix will play hard itself for this honor and, barring baseball accidents, most of the fans are looking for an even break between the teams.

WEATHER FORECAST

New Orleans, May 29.—Tonight and Friday partly cloudy and unsettled weather.

URGES THE USE OF HARROWS

Local Agent Rogers Says They will Save Much Time.

And Result in Better Cultivation—Demonstration Farms are Doing Well

J. E. Rogers, local agent for the farmers co-operative demonstration work was in town today and says the demonstration farms are doing nicely, especially where the instructions are being followed.

He insists if the farmers would quit the use of the scraper and use the harrow more and get over the crop, both cotton and corn as fast as possible, that better results would follow. A farmer who has never used the two horse section harrow on his cotton before it has had any thing done to it should try it, he says. It gives a fair cultivation and is really better than anything. One little boy with two mules and a section harrow can do two to three times as much work as two men with two cultivators scraping and dirting. This is much cheaper and more rapid than any other tools.

The crust should be broken soon as dry enough after every rain, says Mr. Rogers, and by keeping this done any farmer can go over his crop every week and then have spare time for other work. He wants every farmer to try this plan.

"In as much as it is impossible far me to reach all those interested in this work this year," said Mr. Rogers, "I would like to suggest the use of the harrows, side harrows, cultivators and diverse culti-

SPECIAL COACH FOR REUNION

For the convenience of Faulkner county veteran and others who desire to attend the Confederate reunion at Memphis June 8 to 10 a special through coach will be run from Conway to Memphis on the night of June 7. W. W. Richmond of Little Rock, passenger and ticket agent of the Iron Mountain, was in the city yesterday and completed arrangements with Adjutant R. A. Reynolds to run the special coach. The coach will be set out here early in the day and will be picked up by the 6:30 train on the evening of June 7. It will be carried through without delay and will arrive in Memphis at 7 a. m. June 8. Similar special service will be provided for the return trip.

The low rate of $4.35 extended for this trip will probably cause the coach at this place to be filled with excursionists. Tickets at the same price will also be sold for the regular trains on June 6 to 9 inclusive and will be good returning until June 14. By depositing tickets with the agent at Memphis before June 14, and paying 50c they may be extended until July 1.

To Resume Banister Case.

The investigation of the murder of Roy Banister of Conway, who was killed at Argenta several weeks ago, will be resumed by the Grand Jury when it meets again May 26. The Grand Jury did not conclude its investigation up to the time it took a recess last week.

Offie Douglas, Banister's companion from Conway, was arrested and charged with the murder, which occurred at or near the negro resorts recently destroyed by fire on North Main street. Douglas a short time after his arrest gave bond and was released.—Gazette.

MAY JEWELRY!

"Who first beholds the light of day
In Spring's sweet flowery month of May,
And wears an Emerald all her life,
Shall be a loved and happy wife"

The Emerald

is one of the most highly prized of gem stones. Its magnificent color has rightly been compared to the color of fresh grass in spring, and in brilliancy this stone far excels all other green gems. For May birth tokens, some piece of jewelry containing an Emerald is most appropriate.

My stock will probably afford a selection of some article just suited for the occasion, but the whole market is at your command as I will order anything you want and

YOU OUGHT TO EAT MORE RICE

Many millions of people make it their main diet and they are healthy people has more nutrition than bread, and tastes better for a change. Did you ever try it for your meats and gravies? Most rice-eaters use it that way and like it, but it must be good rice. There are as many kinds of rice as there are coffee. We specialize good rice and sell more every year. Try some of ours and perhaps you will get the "rice habit." It will be good for you.

RICE
